This is an incredibly unique property that provides the feeling of rural living complimented with dream garages, an insane man cave, a fantastic set up for horses, stunning views, privacy, and all located less than 8 minutes from Penticton's downtown! This 1.6 acre property is well equipped with garage space for at least 8 cars, 34'X66' RV parking, tack room, stables, workshop/storage shed, as well as being fully fenced and cross fenced. The gated driveway provides ample parking and turn around space. The home is humble and bright with natural light, and benefits from exceptional views clear across the valley taking in much of Penticton, and Okanagan Lake. The huge wrap around deck and hot tub are the perfect place to bask in the impressive views with friends and family. The property and all buildings have been meticulously maintained, upgraded and cared for. There are truly too many features to list. Call today for details. Properties like this are very rare, this is a must see.
